Oh dear old Tarkington High School that is our name. Never no never will she lose her fame we love her. So we say for-ev-er loyal are we, for we are bound together through E-ter-ni-ty.

TARKINGTON HIGH SCHOOL Cleveland, Texas

Foreword

Tomorrow is
A new day
That finds its way
Across the quiet hours
With eager hope
Reminiscent of yesterday

In your tomorrows we, the Longhorn Staff, sincerely hope that the 1959 annual will help you to relive your school days and bring you joy on reminiscent occasions.

Staff

In a Tarkington Annual of some ten years ago, the Superintendent asked, "Ten years from now, what?"

Today, it is a pleasure to answer that question. Tarkington School enrollment has increased by one hundred, nine additional teachers have been employed and a supervisor visits regularly.

A large modern brick high school building and an agriculture building have replaced the old wooden structures. The entire plant is furnished and equipped with the best and most modern that can be had. Tarkington has made tremendous advancements in every area. The school is keeping pace with the better schools in the state.

1958-1959 is one of Tarkington's best years. More and a better quality of learning is being experienced. It is my hope that these experiences will make the future years happier and more successful.

My congratulations to Mrs. Ener and the Annual Staff for a job well done.

Sincerely,

James P. Evans

Last Will And Testament

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENT:

We, the Senior Class of Tarkington High School, of the County of Liberty, State of Texas, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and not acting under fraud, duress, menace, or the undue influence of any person whatsoever, do make and publish, and declare this my Last Will and Testament, in the manner following, that is to say:

First: We hereby revoke, annul, and cancel all other wills and codicils by us at any time made.

Second: Larry Sutherland gives and bequeaths to Tommy Caughman the privilege to smoke any time he pleases. To Marvin Plander, Leroy Lewis leaves his ability to play ball. Willie Frank Martin bequeaths his skill in skipping English Class to Chicken Taylor. To one Goose Kirkham, Gordon Locke commits his ability to construct 3-stage rockets. Leon Porter leaves his secret of fouling out of basketball to Chicken Taylor. Billy Dale Scott wills his good looks to Artis Glen. To Glen Scott, Homer Stone bestows his manner in taking church offerings. Albert Parnell gives (without reservation) his tooth pick supply--and his art of chewing them to Jesse Whisenant. Jerry Mack Andrus wills his old gas can and 8-foot courtesy card to R. J. Walker. John Earl Ellisor bequeaths his ability to run the 100 yard dash in 10 flat to Tommy Caughman. To Betty Ann Ellisor (who can use them) Sandra Smith wills her garter belt and girdle. Chicken Lewis leaves her enchanting personality and easy "gab" to Bonnie Chandler. Carolyn Burwick wills her basketball position to Katherine Green. Verta Sue Chambers wills the ease of losing her temper to Elaine Cessna and Mary Long. To Helen Stoneberger, Doris Croft leaves her quiet disposition and to Frances Gilley her art of being a homemaker. Patsy Smith leaves to Rita Dever her way of keeping the library in order. Nancy Pate leaves to Katherine Green her secret of getting the man she wants (it'll be a task), Katherine. Joe Kite leaves his forgetfulness in bookkeeping to his brother, Bennie thinking perhaps that he will fare better. To Ilene and Jerry, Ned wills his "cut up" tactics in the hope that they will improve them. Bobby Porter leaves his football position to Johnnie Head and Donald Givens. It will take both of you! Dot Hansbro and Louise Oliver are to receive all Ruth McCorkle's office privileges, provided that they maintain the dignity of that position. To Patsy and Ethel, the class leaves all its teacher respect and favor.

We, hereby nominate and appoint, our sponsor, W. R. Walker, sole executor, without bond of this our Last Will and Testament, and we hereby authorize our said executor to execute this will without any order of or return to any court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of May, A. D., 1959.

Junior Class Prophecy

This is the year of 1965, and on our flying "Supercarpet," we rove the world over, glancing down now and then to find the graduates of 1959 going about their daily routine. Here's what we find our heroes and heroines doing:

Carolyn Burwick, a Private Secretary for J. Duckin Rainwater, President of Gaylor Lake Water Works.

Doris Croft working as Head Nurse of Hightower Hospital, showing mothers how to pin the perfect diaper.

Charliene Lewis already fabulously wealthy from selling bicycles to freshmen who have to run errands for seniors.

Ruth McCorkle continuing her career of public speaking--now the orator at a dairy barn.

Nancy Pate still trying to create something to outdo Paris fashions without getting a criminal record.

Patsy Smith owner and operator of the "Gip Joint" Cafe located on Shady Lane Avenue.

Sandra Smith working diligently as housewife of Ben A. Nut, the Superintendent of Rusk Asylum.

Jerry Mack Andrus now playing football for A & M, believing that he should have that squad straightened out in another year.

Vernon Brown at the 1965 Presidential Election in Washington, D. C., still pointing out the qualities of the Dixiecrats.

John Earl Ellisor operating his own Diesel Railway Line from Dolen Gravel Pits to Well's Store and milking cows in his spare time.

Rayburn Gilbert as Civil Engineer tunneling the Rockies to shorten the trip for Hollywood commuters.

Dalton Gregory happily settling down at the job of Chief Saw Sharpener a Macedonia local mill.

Ned Hunziker, a "D" student at A & M, making millions from his discovery of growing cobless corn.

Gordon Locke progressing exceedingly well--a recent promotion made him Chief Salesman at Well's Store.

John Robert Long hospitalized as a result of a fall received while riding a bareback donkey at the Annual Dolen Square Gardens Rodeo.

Willie Frank Martin with his Wester Swing Band, playing at the "Three Gables" in Romayor. An old flame, Pat, is singing with his band the very popular, "Why Don't You Haul Off and Love Me."

Albert Parnell, Professor of one of the State's leading Universities "Far Below Normal."

Bobby Porter, SMU Football Coach, still using old TPU plays.

Leon Porter after 8 years at Baylor a Sunday School Teacher at Rusk.

Billy Dale Scott the Chief Salesman in the Toilet Paper Department at Gray's Store.

Homer Stone progressing very well as Assistant TPU Janitor.

Marion Taylor, Chief Commode Cleaner at the popular "321 Cafe". A promotion is due anytime.

Joe Kite co-owner of the National Girdle Factory of Davis Hill.

W. R. Walker, dear senior sponsor, a Professional Census Taker--his ability to keep perfect count of the seniors got him the job.

MOTTO: "Though we travel the world over to find the beautiful, we must carry it with us or we find it not." Emerson

COLORS: Blue and Gold

THEME: Education is life in the making--as we live with ourselves, our neighbors, our vocations.

OBJECTIVES: To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community.

To raise the standards of home life.

To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.

To develop between education and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantage in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.
